

Orientation Topics Covered

- Review of job description, duties, and role within the agency
- Organizational chart and reporting structure
- Agency philosophy, mission, and values
- Recordkeeping and reporting responsibilities
- Confidentiality and privacy of Protected Health Information (PHI) (HIPAA compliance)
- Patient rights and responsibilities
- Advance directives and patient autonomy
- Conflict of interest policy
- Access to agency policies and procedures
- Emergency preparedness and response training
- Job-specific training and competency requirements
- Training for care of special populations (e.g., pediatrics, chronic diseases, substance use disorders), if applicable
- Cultural competency and diversity awareness
- Access to and review of the California State Practice Act (e.g., California Nurse Practice Act available at www.rn.ca.gov)
- Addressing communication barriers
- Ethical decision-making in care delivery
- Maintaining professional boundaries
- Participation in the agency's Performance Improvement Program
- Overview of the agency's Compliance Program
- Explanation of service charges and billing practices
- OSHA standards, workplace safety, and infection control practices
- Orientation to medical equipment as applicable
- Incident and variance reporting, including infection control, hand hygiene, and influenza protocols
- Handling patient grievances and complaint procedures
- Pain management, opioid use education, and associated risks
- For Medicare-certified agencies: OASIS documentation and other CMS-required documentation

- Agency Code of Conduct
 - Accrediting Organization (AO) contact information for grievances
 - COVID-19 vaccination policy and infection control protocols
 - Education regarding sexual abuse, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression
-

Acknowledgment Section

I acknowledge that I have received the above orientation and have been provided with access to relevant laws, policies, and procedures governing my practice and responsibilities within the agency.

Employee Name:

Employee Signature:

Date:

Agency Representative Signature:

Date:
